

Linda Fegins

Speaker and Author

A legal career for over 28 years, Linda Fegins enjoys the challenge of oral argument before three judges in the state and federal appellate court system of her home state and has an MBA. Admitted to the Supreme Court of the United States, her desire is to appear before the nine Justices.

Linda employs the arts to engage, entertain and equip her audience to take strategic practical and faith action steps to achieve their goals despite setbacks, adversity, and mistakes. Linda serves as a “courage catalyst” to challenge women to face their fears and to have the courage to start, speak up, show up and take action.

Linda’s book the “Courage To Be First-Confront Your Fears and Take Action” will be released late fall. Five sisters bravely dared to ask for land in the Promised Land that was going to be denied to them because their deceased father had no sons, and they were women. Their courage resulted in a new precedent and their story teaches women today many strategic and compelling lessons.

Linda is one of the co-authors in the anthology by actress Kim Coles, entitled, Wisdom G.I.F.T.S.: 30 Lessons on Finding and Embracing The Wisdom In The Journey. She has written an article entitled Extraordinary Women of Faith: The Daughters of Zelophehad and can be found in two other anthologies.

She is the recipient of “The Deborah Woman of Faith Award” presented by the Lydia Circle of Christian and Business and Professional Women and the “A Salute to Women Award” from the American Business Women’s Association for community service.

Traveling to South Africa and Jamaica to carry out mission work, as well as facilitating a prayer workshop at an International Women’s Conference held in the Bahamas were high spots for Linda. She has served as the Prayer Leader at many prayer bootcamps as a part of the Lydia Circle for Christian Business and Professional Women and a Prayer Leader at her home church in the city of Detroit. “More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of” is a favorite quote of Linda Fegins by a prayer warrior.

Real-life characters such as Eve, and Sojourner Truth have been brought to life by Linda in her love for the arts and the theatre. One highlight for her was acting in a short showcase at the Detroit Repertory Theatre.
